BrownFlynn Launches Fifth Sustainability Report, in Accordance with GRI G4 Guidelines

Cleveland, OH (April 19, 2017) – Corporate sustainability and governance consultancy BrownFlynn is proud to release its fifth sustainability report, Partner for Sustained Value, written in accordance with the GRI G4 Guidelines Core option. The report demonstrates how BrownFlynn partners across a range of stakeholders to create sustained value: through our work, our people, and our environmental stewardship.

“BrownFlynn is excited to present its fifth sustainability report detailing its continued commitment to walking the talk,” says Margie Flynn, Principal and Co-Founder. “Among many achievements during the reporting period, we celebrated our 20th anniversary, published a book, expanded our team, and welcomed numerous top-brand clients and partners. All of these milestones and more make us excited for the future.”

The 2015-2016 report features an interactive materiality matrix that includes mapping of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals to BrownFlynn’s material topics, as well as highlights stories about our community engagement efforts, sustainable transportation awards, and BrownFlynn’s book project.
